

THINK GREEN, BE GREEN

JANUARY 11: THE CHESAPEAKE BAY

Seahorse Inn, 710 Wise Avenue, Dundalk

Learn about the history of this national treasure, today's problems with pollution, and innovative solutions.

JANUARY 25: URBAN STORMWATER

Austin Grill, 2400 Boston St, Canton

Understand how streets, roofs, and sidewalks can be greener and other innovations for the built environment.

FEBRUARY 08: TREES AND THEIR CARE

Coburns, 2921 O'Donnell St., Canton

Discover what makes trees so special and how to best care for their long-term health.

FEBRUARY 22: NEIGHBORHOOD NATURAL HISTORY

Squire's Restaurant, 6723 Holabird Ave, Dundalk

Ever wonder what was here before we were or which trees witnessed the battles in 1814? Come find out that and much more!

MARCH 01: PLANNING EXTERIOR SURFACES TO AID THE BAY

SE Anchor Library, 3601 Eastern Ave, Highlandtown

Discover how to help the Bay while planning your backyard or driveway with pervious pavers.

MARCH 08: RECYCLING 2.0

Dundalk High School, Room 106 (Technology Building)

Find out how recycling saves money, energy, and open space; learn about new recycling programs in the area.

MARCH 22: SUSTAINABILITY FOR 2010

Location TBD

Ever wondered, "what is sustainability?" The buzz word of 2010. Find out what it is and how it can be applied

The series is being held on Mondays, 6—7:30 pm, in various locations around Dundalk and Southeast Baltimore. For more details, check the events calendar at www.DundalkUSA.org.

JOIN THE SOUTH EAST CDC AND THE DUNDALK RENAISSANCE CORP. FOR A 2010 FREE, FUN, "GREEN" LEARNING SERIES

DUNDALK RENAISSANCE CORPORATION

SOUTHEAST
community development corporation